PLEASE NOTE

IF you are planning any hunt PLEASE consult with your donors FIRST to see if they offer the adventure you seek. Take this program home to be sure you have websites, email or other contact information. Some of our donors travel thousands of miles to be with us, donate expensive hunts to support SCI and our chapter and market their business. They deserve your thanks and your business when possible. Not all outfitters can offer everything but it's only right to give them a fair opportunity to provide you an adventure of a lifetime or their products and services.
