

SCI Badgerland Chapter will have a very unique item available at it's January 20th & 21st, 2012 HUNTER EXPO.

The choice of two Antique Persian Rugs

Chapter member, Doc Stuart White and his wife Janet have donated one of two antique Persian Rugs known as "4 Seasons" or "Hunting Rugs"

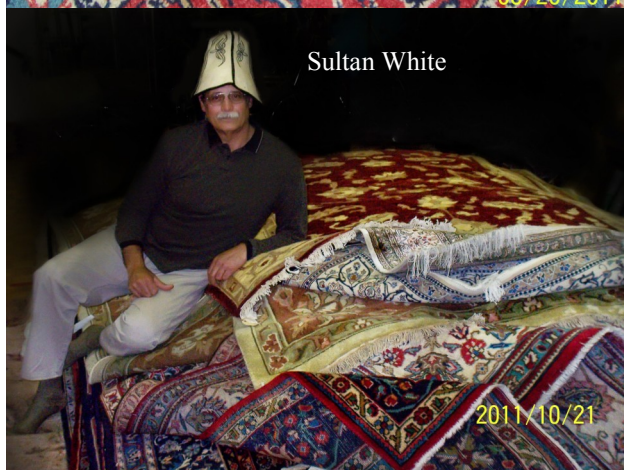

These rugs are antique rugs in new condition. While hunting Asia some years ago Stuart made contacts and has handpicked and has brought back over two hundred Persian rugs. They are all investment grade and he has them stored in a stack of rugs about three feet deep. You might say Sultan Doc is eccentric, but he loves hunting, and does collect rugs.

The White's have let the Chapter have choice pick... and since we can't handle the biggest ones we picked two highest quality medium sized rugs for you to bid on... plus you get your pick.

Rug # 1 is a 6' 4"x 10' Quom (Iran) 4 Seasons/Hunting Rug silk/wool NEW condition. Roe deer and crane featured.

Rug #2 is a 7' 4"x 11' 1" Sarough (Iran) wool over 30 years old. Excellent condition. 140 kpsi

Either is a perfect choice for the trophy game room or ornate executive office space.

Borokhim's in Madison, WI tells us $5K- 12K for Quom & the same for the Sarough. The range is based on quality and these are considered excellent. These are also considered excellent sizes.

Gulesserian's in Madison, WI is more conservative allowing a minimum of $5,500 for the Quom and $6,500 for the Sarough. Much more $$$ would be allowed for condition and age... These are antique and excellent tugs. Iranian rugs are not allowed into the USA today and these were made before the recent cheaper high productions. Great chance to get a great deal.
