

NUMZAAN SAFARIS 5 Day Safari for 4 People.

Chapter members from Elroy, Wisconsin, Mike & Karen Helbing and PH Stef Swanepoel have donated a 5 day South African Safari for two hunters and two observers or 4 (2x1) hunters.

You can talk to Mike at our SCI Badgerland Convention January 20th & 21st, 2012 at the Kalahari in the Wisconsin Dells, Wisconsin.

Arrival is Tambo International Airport in Johannesburg, South Africa. You will be hunting in the Limpopo Province from Wild Wildebeest Lodge (see website www.numzaan.com and scroll to the Wild Wildebeest Lodge photos). This lodge is large enough to accommodate your whole family or a group of friends.

You can bow or rifle hunt, .270 Winchester or larger is recommended. No automatic or semi-auto arms allowed.

All lodging, meals and full safari Camp services are provided. You may select to complete your safari March - October of 2012 or 2013. Not included: day of arrival and day of departure, dip and packing if taxidermy is done in U.S., and gratuities.

The donors have included $1000 towards your trophy fees, and an additional $2000 towards trophy fees if upgraded to a ten day hunt. You may select those animals you have the most interest in hunting. Sample 2010 trophy fees. Blesbuck $500, bushbuck $925, bush duiker $350, gemsbok $1350, waterbuck $1800, southern greater kudu $2500, hartebeest or wildebeest $1350 each, eland $2500, impala $450. See website for complete trophy list and much more information. Client reference list available from donor.

Upgrade to ten hunting days and get another $2000 in trophy fee credit.

The successful bidders are invited to Mike and Karen's home for dinner anytime prior to the hunt to go over details.

Do your homework, talk to the donor, he's a fellow chapter member right here in Wisconsin, 608-572-2389, email is: helbing@centurytel.net

Donor valuation is $8,000 to $10,000
